Delegates From State At Youth Legislature

Fleming, Ems Make Los Angeles Trip

Attending a Youth Legislature Convention at Los Angeles City college, April 12, 13, 14, will be delegates Vivian Fleming and Margaret Ems of the International Relations Club.

Round table discussions planned for the meetings will include such topics as Peace, Extension of Democracy, Economic Security and Jobs.

As unofficial attendants Libby Gratch and Jean Olsen will attend the convention.

The club is in receipt of a letter of thanks from the American School at Damascus for a financial contribution to the school. It is planned to send a similar contribution this semester as a club project, stated President Margaret Ems.

Any contribution from students for the same cause will be appreciated she said, and may be turned in at the club's headquarters.

International club has scheduled a program of movies dealing with the Spanish War at their coming meeting, Thursday at 11 o'clock.

Sorority To Hold Initiation

The initiation and dinner of the Sigma Itho Gamma, San Francisco State College chapter of the Rainbow Girls, held last night at the Paris Cafe, reported Dorothy Chandler, club secretary, today.

On May 5th the organization will hold a picnic in the East Bay section to which all members are cordially invited to come.

Meetings of the group are held each week in the various homes of its members.

Ten Second Interview

• Would you suggest that a nominal admission fee be charged to the noon-day dances in order to have an orchestra play, or does the present system of presentation satisfy you?

"I believe that an orchestra should play at the afternoon dances. If a slight admission charge is needed to obtain an orchestra, then by all means have it that way."

Dorothy Puett
low frosh

"The way the dances are being handled now suits me. As for the orchestra, it would be of no value to get them to play for just the one hour that the dance lasts."

Jack McInerney
low soph

"An orchestra should play at these dances because there is an unlimited amount of talent here at the college which could be made available for these dances. This would undoubtedly increase the college spirit at these dances."

Margaret Lovell
high soph

"I think that the outstanding orchestras which you can hear through the records, are good enough for me! Why pay to have some small-time orchestra grind out a bunch of corn?"

Madame L. Kiang Tells Of Sordid China Conditions

Relates Experiences In Aiding Refugees

"Peace must first be in our hearts, then in the family, and then in our social relations," said Madame L. Kiang in an address to the International Relations Club, Thursday, March 29.

Madame Kiang has spent many years in China aiding refugees of the China-Japanese War. The movement in China now is to form small industrial cooperatives so that they can evacuate quickly when bombs strike.

In rehabilitating these areas the ideal solution is the rich earth because of its claylike texture. Cotton replaces opium poppies, but paper manufacturing dominates the industries.

In the "backwoods" of China, the people have never seen such edibles as oranges. When M. Kiang's party traveled through these parts they threw orange rinds out of their baskets, and to their amazement the rinds were eaten as delicacies by the people.

Most of the water in these areas is lime and is used for washing only. The drinking water is carried from the larger cities.

The populace of the new remaining cities is composed of the older Chinese, the young students having fled to the south, according to Madame Kiang.

A.W.S. Delegates Go To Conference

Two members of the A.W.S., President Margerite Sauter and Representative Jo Biggi, will attend a conference of college representatives of western states at the University of Oregon, April 15, 16, 17.

The theme of the event, which is held every two years, will be "Women in a Democracy," and will be held in conjunction with a convention of deans of women from western colleges.

Many topics will be discussed, and one of the questions deliberated will be that of student housing and student cooperatives.

When the delegates return from Oregon, they plan an A.W.S. rally in which they will acquaint members with what happened at the convention.

Spring Season Inspires Poets

Here 'tis Spring, poetic season, But Rhyme Club's weak—here's the reason:

The light of poesy is dimmin' For lack of members, 'specially women.

These are the sentiments of the Godmother of the Poetry Workshop, Mrs. Ruth Witt-Diamant, although not in her exact words. A preponderance of males in the club has produced a crying need for the fairer, weaker and more romantic sex.

The next meeting will be held Friday night at Mrs. Witt-Diamant's home, 44 Mendoza avenue. All poetry enthusiasts (gals especially) are invited.

Dormitory Problem Investigated By Dean Mary Ward

Whether the dormitories on the new campus will be co-operatives, is the problem being looked into by Dean Mary A. Ward, who is being assisted by the Phi Lambda Chi, Sienna club, the Newman club, Dr. E. Michel-Parmely and Mr. V. Dorris.

The committee is working on the plan of one central building containing the kitchen and dining room, and surrounded by the dormitories.

If the boarding rates are low enough, it will cost little more than commuting, stated Dean Ward, and it is hoped that these low rates will encourage students to stay on the campus.

'40 Franciscan Set Completion Date, April 15

Tentative completion of all work on the faculty, administration, activities, senior, and organization sections for the 1940 Franciscan has been set at Monday, April 15.

To date, almost all written copy has been completed for the above sections, and few photographs remain to be completed. The sports and feature section are practically completed, also, with copy due on the spring sports and some photography of games necessary.

The advertising campaign for the Franciscan ends today with a new record of pages of ads sold. With ads secured to date, the annual stands to make a profit of up to $200 to pay off the back debt, at the same time adding more color sections and a new eight-page section.

The entire book will be 136 pages, with four four-color sections, three two-color sections, novel end sheets, and a six-color cover.

Hasty Marriages Likely To Fail

"Hasty marriages are rarely successful," stated Dr. Elene Michell-Parmely before a sociology class recently.

Proof of this statement was offered by Dr. Michell-Parmely in the fact that the number of divorces among couples who "fell in love at first sight" is much greater, in proportion, than divorces where the couple had a long acquaintanceship.

"The conception that love comes but once in a lifetime is a wrong one," continued Dr. Michell-Parmely. "The love that holds couples together is a long-lasting one—just as romantic in the kitchen as in the ballroom," concluded Dr. Michell-Parmely.

Sorority Members Sell Whist Tickets

Phi Lambda Chi members are selling tickets for a Whist party which they plan to present on April 12. Prizes will be awarded. In charge of the affair is May Wholch, and Gladys Thompson is entertainment chairman. Tickets are only 25 cents per person.

No Third -er-ah Second Term For Prexy Sweeney

Outlook For Coming Elections Cited By Outgoing President

An unqualified and emphatic "No" was the Student Body President Bob Sweeney's answer when questioned today on the possibility of tossing his hat in the ring for a second term.

Paralleling Calvin Coolidge's famous "I do not choose to run" sentiments, Sweeney stated one term was sufficient and it was time "for someone else to get a chance."

Questioned as to the outlook for the coming elections, Sweeney avoided any controversial queries, though offering the cautious belief that "it looked like a battle between Bob Anderson and Lee Carrothers."

Sweeney admitted the rigors of the prexy's post had taken a toll of energy that was staggering, and said he believed a second term was "too much to bite off."

Sweeney will return to school in the fall, to complete units in upper division work which have not been offered for the past year.

Russian Art And Literature Club Hears Musician

A Russian Art and Literature Section of the International Relations Club held its first meeting on Thursday, April 4 at 4 p.m. with some 15 members attending.

Eugene Vdovin was selected as chairman pro-tem, and Mrs. Helen Tychinin acted as the spokesman. It was decided to have Prof. Vladimir Tychinin of the Extension Division of State College as the adviser of the group.

Mrs. Marion Schultz rendered a piano solo of several interesting Russian numbers and also sang several of Tchaikowsky's songs. Mrs. Tychinin gave a brief survey of a phase of Russian literature, and poems or Turgenev recited from the prose.

Afterwards, the members were introduced to each other and refreshments were served.

Any person interested in joining this organization should contact Box 546 for full information.

Bib 'n Tucker Girls Turn To Fortune-Telling In Candy Sale

Curious about your future? Purchase a bag of homemade candy containing your fortune, from the girls of the Bib'n Tucker club tomorrow. As an added inducement, the girls will place one free ticket to their dance and fashion show, Friday, April 19, in one of the bags.

The club members selling the candy will be at the most strategic spots on the campus throughout the noon hour. Betty Lou Grissell, chairman of the candy committee, said today, "We have thought up any number of ideas for fortunes and have placed them in the bags of candy."

The names of the men and the women models who have been chosen by the committee under Betty Fisher will not be disclosed

Work On New Campus Going Into Full Swing With One Hundred Workers On Job

Temporary Buildings Constructed; Heavy Equipment Arrives For Drainage Operations

With full speed ahead one hundred workers swung into action on State's future home grounds. Canyons surrounding the new campus site were cleaned of all brush and excess debris in order to lay foundations for the erection of several temporary buildings.

Far Eastern Fund Will Be Aided By 'Buy A Tag' Sale

International Club Receives Letter Of Thanks For Cash Aid

"Buy a tag," will be the cry during the week of April 22. The Far Eastern Student Service Fund which aids destitute students in Chinese universities will be inaugurated on the local campus with the tag selling campaign under the direction of a committee headed by Earle Yusa.

The drive, a project of the Westminster club, and which has the approval of the student Executive board, has representatives of the various clubs on the committee.

The committee expressed the desire that each individual and group would get behind the drive, as the money will go toward aiding nearly 35,000 Chinese students whose funds have been cut off due to present hostilities.

The exchange rate being 16 to 1, it was pointed out that 10 cents will support a Chinese student several weeks. Money will be used to establish student cooperatives and hostels, as well as in providing food and educational facilities.

Society Plans Tea For Future Members

A tea for prospective members will be given tomorrow by Kappa Delta Pi, honorary education society, Barbara Cuneo, president, announced today.

Those in charge include: Barbara McGovern, Melda Moore and Marjorie McIlveen.

"We want a junior organization, and so we have invited only sophomores to the tea," Miss Cuneo said.

State Celebrates Anniversary With Honorary Dinner

Celebration of the thirty-ninth anniversary of San Francisco State college, as a state school, will be the occasion for an anniversary dinner Saturday evening, May 11, at the Bellevue restaurant, 505 Geary street.

Dean David J. Cox will be guest of honor during the evening's program, in recognition of his tenth year of service as head of the men's physical education department at State. Other notables to be present at the dinner will include several outstanding leaders in education of the Bay Area schools.

Four former students of Dean Cox, when he was a physical education teacher at Polytechnic high school, will be present to pay their respects and will also be representing four of the foremost newspapers in San Francisco. They are Jack Rosenbaum of the News, Art Rosenbaum from the Chronicle sports staff, Prescott Sullivan of the Examiner and Pat Frayne from the Call-Bulletin plant.

Ted Goldman, president of the San Francisco alumni association, is serving as chairman of the committee in charge of the affair.

Cal Poly Visitor Plans Excursion

Welcome visitor to our campus last Friday was John Caricaburu, student body president of California Polytechnic College. Bob Sweeney, State prexy, entertained Caricaburu with a visit through the campus and a dinner in his honor.

Caricaburu declared that his visit was for pleasure and business. He was here to make arrangements for an "On to S.F. State" excursion when State meets Cal Poly in football next season.

Publications Board Emerges From 'Background' To State Policy

As an organization originally established to maintain control over all San Francisco State publications, the Board of Publications has the management and activities of continued in that policy since its inception.

And, as such, it has become a clearing house for altercations both within publications and a jury box for faculty and student criticisms. Meetings are held once each week and are usually attended by the faculty sponsor and the journalism professors, this year Mr. Luther Meyer and DeCalvus Simonson.

There seems to be a strange vagueness associated with the board in the minds of the students of the college, due probably because of the seldomness that it comes to the attention of the students. This is due to the policy always adopted by the board of "staying in the background" and letting the students put out the paper themselves.

Specifically the duties of the board include the following:

(1) Appointment, approval and removal of all student editors on campus publications.

(2) Awarding contracts for the printing of such publications.

(3) Control management and activities when more than one publication is involved.

(4) Control policies of publications, as to advertising, faculty and student criticisms, elections.

(5) Purchase such necessities as typewriters, cabinets, etc., and approve any special editions, as to size or scope, as may be advocated.

(6) The board also arranges for the semi-annual dinner and reception, and votes the awards for outgoing editors.

The board consists at present of four voting members and the Student Director, who is elected in an open campus election in the general student body elections. It is a student body office. Formerly the board consisted of six members, who must be active in journalism at the time of their appointment and who must continue so throughout their tenure of office. They must have had a year's experience on the Gater or Franciscan and a "C" average. They are appointed by the Director of Publications with the sanction of the student Executive Board.

The director is chairman of the meetings and is directly responsible to the faculty and students. He has the power of suspension and appointment of any position, from the editor of a publication to the business manager. In such cases, however, his decision is voted on by the board at the next regularly scheduled meeting.

He must have had two years of active participation in State publications and held a major editorial position. He is also held to the "C" average ruling.

Drama Festival Fetes Macbeth

• Presentation of Macbeth, as a revival of the Shakespeare drama festival on the campus, is scheduled for the end of May, according to Jack McKannay, co-director of the production.

Final casting for the play has resulted in the selection of Lillian Phillips as Lady Macbeth, Wallace Twitchell as Macduff, and Stanley Lefcourt as Ross. The title role will be portrayed by John McKannay; Marcus Davis will be seen in the dual role of Malcolm and Banquo, while Harold Jacobs and Donald Joy will appear as the first witch and the doctor, respectively.

The cast will be completed by Louise Winters, Bob Lovejoy, Bob Schulton, Warren Thornton and Margery Willis. Co-directors of the play will be Norbert Nichols and John McKannay.

Edited from its original running time of over two hours, the new version of Macbeth will take but 45 minutes to present. In place of the traditional costumes of medieval Scotland, the characters will wear twentieth century clothing.

GENTLE HINT

Listen, sweetheart, to my plea;
Cut this highly cultured game,
All this fine gentility
Grows exceeding tame.
What I want is lowbrow love,
Heavy, knockdown, cave-man stuff;
I'm no cooing turtle dove,
Treat me rough, kid, treat me rough.

Can the soft and weepy sighs;
Stop the meek and humble pose.
I'm no fragile little rose.
Grasp me with a python grip;
If I struggle call my bluff.
Want my love? Then no back lip;
Treat me rough, kid, treat me rough.

I don't want my cheek caressed
With a nice respectful peck;
Yank me wildly to your chest,
If I fight you, break my neck.
Please don't be a gentle dub,
Spilling "la-de-dah-ish guff."
Woo and win me with a club;
Treat me rough, kid, treat me rough.

Young Girl's Fancy Turns To Clothes In All Seasons

By Bernice Lotwin
Fashion Editor

In the spring a young man's fancy turns to love—but, winter, summer, fall and spring a young girl's fancy turns to clothes. About our noteworthy campus can be seen all the latest styles in sports clothes, which are the proverbial style for college campuses.

Among the hostess lovelies for Radio Day, your truly glimpsed Tillie Rastad dressed in a smart navy blue and white striped dress. The navy skirt gave a two-piece appearance and was topped by a striped blouse. Blue and white spectator pumps were worn with the outfit.

Rita O'Brien was also outstanding among the hostesses of Radio Day. Her powder blue dress trimmed with dainty white collar and cuffs set her black-haired beauty off to perfection.

Pastel clothes are always so up to the minute, especially the light colored suits worn with a sweater of contrasting color.

And have you seen the pastel plaids? If you haven't, you should look into them. With

Executive Board Gives Display For Radio

• Due to the success of the picture display of radio artists and program production scenes, a permanent display has been made possible through the co-operation of the executive board this week.

On the west wall of the first floor of College Hall near the offices of Dean Ward, two glass-covered bulletin boards have some of the pictures that attracted so much attention this week and include the letter from Gracie Allen and a list of important educational programs on NBC and CBS.

'Count Me In On Census, Ma'

• Uncle Sam is asking college students to write home during March and request something besides the traditional check.

He wants the young men and women who are living temporarily at school to remind their parents:

"Count me in when the census-taker comes to the 'family mansion' in April."

It has been Uncle Sam's experience in 150 years of census-taking that while absence may make the heart grow fonder, it also tends to make the mind forgetful. Census Bureau officials have good reason to believe that the accuracy of the count of students who happen to be away from home at the time of the census can be improved.

College students, temporarily away from home to attend school, should be counted as members of the households in which they usually reside. Students who have no permanent residence other than the places in which they are living while attending school or college, however, should be enumerated there. Such students should call or write to the District Supervisor for the Census if they are not enumerated.

Feeling that college students, like every other section of the population, will benefit from a reliable national inventory, the U. S. Bureau of the Census is asking them to do their part in making the 1940 Census a success.

... AFTERBEATS ...

• It happened too many evenings ago to be brightly newsy, but it is one of the many incidents which has endeared Alexander Woolcott to us, the people, during his stay here. Woolcott attended the Symphony "pop" concert at which Oscar Levant, pianist, musical dictionary, and former feudin' rival of Woolcott, was guest artist.

Woolcott was ushered down the wrong aisle at the Opera House that evening. When the error was discovered, the Great Man stopped in the middle of the aisle and, to the discomfiture of the usher and to the delight of those sitting near by, assumed a Hamletian pose and declaimed, "I've been misled, I have!"

Memories sharply outlined and compliments by the bushel are all that remain in the wake of the Music Federation's Los Angeles trip. The 60 who made the excursion had a glorious time in spite of (perhaps because of) the little time they had to themselves.

Most of the time during the three-day period was devoted to traveling and performing, but that didn't stop the craziest gang of kids in California from enjoying themselves. For instance: Tom Tzuji was hurt because there was no "International Bus."

"Snooky" Kelly flew back. He's only recently recovered his breath after his adventure into the ozone.

"Cuddles" Leete knew every hashier on North Broadway.

Tom Chestnut and Jim Golden met some colorful characters on Main Street. Do you know Main Street?

Latest campus organization is the Orsini Opera company. Founder and leading baritone is Caesar Orsini, whose opera, "Mia Figlia," is the first to be produced by the new group.

"Mia Figlia" has Frank Spitaleri in the role of Paskudnicko, who sings the famous aria, "Mia Figlia." Bill Garzoli takes the role of Estutmirvei, the basso lead, and lends his powerful pipes to the rendition of the magnificently moronic recitative, "Mia Figlia." Gerry Sharkey, tenor sensation, steals the show with his splendid rendition of "Mia Figlia," well-known soprano aria.

We are proud to be the first outlet of publication for this new association. "Mia Figlia" is destined to become a tremendous success because it reflects that same spirit which imbues the lower annex with life.

High Frosh Sport Night Tomorrow

Featuring a host of virile boxers, wrestlers, tumblers and weight lifters, the High Frosh Sportnight will be held Wednesday night at 8:15 in the women's gym.

Several local newspaper sports writers and radio sports commentators are expected to be on hand for the evening, according to Izzy Pivnick, high freshman president. The entire student body is invited to attend the free program.

Matmen Perform

Outstanding among the glove events will be a match between two members of the State boxing team, Pope and Machi. Also highlighted for this galactic sportnight will be a number of the musclemen of the mat. President Pivnick himself will grapple with Marriash, representative of Cogswell Junior College. Professional groaners, Ralph Beltran and Dave Golding, will give an exhibition match.

State tumblers Al Larin, Ken Lee, Reno Cordoni, Fred Sandrock and Al Davidson will go through their break-neck activities. Mel Nymann's gifted girl tumblers will also participate in the show.

Dancing, Eats

Other acts of the evening's entertainment will be a ring exhibition by Reno Cordoni, a display of massive physiques by the Y.M.C.A. weight lifters, another set of ring acrobats from the Olympic Club, and a special act by members of the Columbia Park Boys' Club.

Curt Buttles, chairman of the affair, announced that dancing and refreshments would supplement the athletic entertainment.

Tennis Squad Continues Wins By Big Scores

Bowling over their fourth victim of the season with great ease, State's tennis team won a 7 to 2 victory over the Cal Aggies last Saturday. This marks, also, the fourth time that we have defeated other schools by an overwhelming score.

Coach Dan Farmer is elated over the continued success of the team and hopes that it keeps up for the conference match to be held against San Jose State Friday.

Today State netsters meet the J.C. racketeers at 4 p.m. on the Palace of Fine Arts courts. Saturday at Stanford the Cards will attempt to stop our indefinite winning spree.

Due to the fact that Harold Wagner, number one man, was forced to work over the week-end, Jack Witt played in the first position. Following the the scores:

Hapgoone (Cal) def. Witt (S), 1-6, 7-5, 6-3.

Hammond (S) def. Jerbeon (Cal), 2-6, 6-1, 6-1.

Tuscher (S) def. Brown (Cal), 6-2, 6-0.

GOLFERS TO MEET AGGIES

The meeting of the Gater and Jaysee golf squad on the historic grounds of Ingleside Links, scheduled for tomorrow afternoon, was postponed for one week. However, the local par-busters will not be without action this week as they cross clubs with a strong Cal Aggie squad come Saturday.

Charles Manning, State's magician of the mashie, is looking forward to the engagement, and the reason centers around a guy from Davis named Lou Bridge. Two weeks ago, in a former State-Aggie match-play, he established a course record, dumped Mr. Manning 3 and 2 in a sensation feature match, and supplied the margin for victory all in one day.

However, Manning and teammates Gordon Mailloux, Roy Sayles, Bob Zamlock, and Jim Eaton figure on avenging this defeat on Saturday.

Keller Bros. Pace Ducks In Easy Win Over Menlo

Sweeping every first place, State's aquatic armada badly defeated the Menlo Junior College swim squad, 47 to 11, Monday afternoon in the Menlo pool.

Harold and Bobby Keller, State stars, swam away with all free-style events. John Haake captured the backstroke and Howard Hall the breaststroke races.

The Chaser Under Fire By W.A.A. Big Guns

"The author of 'Co-ed Athletics', which appeared in the Ladies' issue of The Chaser, would do well to look into the field of modern women's athletics," was the blistering comment made by W.A.A. vice-president Jo Biggi, when asked how she liked the article in the aforementioned magazine.

"Such strenuous competition as would be involved in varsity competition would be highly undesirable. In varsity playing the all-important point is playing for the joy of playing. As for the intramural program being an opportunity to develop varsity material, this detracts from the real benefit derived from sports. The intramural program offers primarily an opportunity to participate."

"Had The Chaser used a more choice selection of words rather than such nouns as gals, sissies, dames, etcetera, it would have met with more approval."

Bobbe Sandeen, W.A.A. president, voiced her approbation as follows: "I think the essential idea of the article. The Chaser is excellent; however, I don't agree with the author as to the method he

Super Track Squad Beats Chico 70 To 61 To Stretch Winning Streak To Three

Otis Sets New Pole Vault Record As Chico Sweeps 100, 220, Low Hurdles

Kohout Will Try To Stretch Win Streak Today

Victorious in three previous encounters with San Mateo, State's baseball nine will try to make it four straight over the Bulldogs this afternoon in San Mateo.

Bob Kohout, who has pitched 19 consecutive scoreless innings, will most likely hurl for the Gaters.

The Tide nine has eight games remaining on their schedule. A doubleheader with the Cal Aggies next Saturday, two games with Moffatt Field, one game with the Athens Club, and three games with Santa Barbara State round out the 1940 schedule.

The Gaters have played .500 ball so far this season, winning nine games and dropping a like number.

Saturday's games with the Aggies bring together the two teams for the second time. Earlier in the season, State and the Farmers split a doubleheader. If Bob Kohout pitches today's game, Carl Haas and the "Grand Master" Gene Bryant will handle the pitching assignments.

The Davis boys boast an array of hitters led by their slugging centerfielder, George Leggett. Lee Kiyomuro, who set the Gaters down in his last appearance in San Francisco, will toss one of the games. The Aggies have taken the University of San Francisco into camp twice and hope to sweep all series with San Francisco teams.

Rapidly becoming a champion-ship squad under the all too unsuspecting noses of San Francisco State students, the Gater track team captured its third win of the season Saturday, defeating Chico State, 70 to 61.

The meet, which was held at Kezar stadium, witnessed the setting of a new pole vault record by George Otis with a leap of 12 feet 9 inches. The former height of 12 feet 6 inches was held by State's former track star, Runar Stone.

Ben Reams, Chico sprinter, garnered 15 points, taking firsts in the 100, 220, and low hurdles. Chico copped all three posts in the century, Morgan and Bob Reams closely following Ben over the finish line.

Fred Kline, State advocate of the don't-pick-up-your-feet-when-you-run system, again proved his superiority in the mile and two-mile events. In both races Carolan took an early lead, but dropped back to conserve his energy for the finish. Kline, who was right behind him, took the lead and kept it all the way to the tape. Carolan then put on a burst of speed to come roaring in for a pair of thirds.

State's hurdling duo of Schultz and Otis again went over and through the barriers to come in one and two in the highs.

Firsts in the high jump and broad jump were gathered by George Parker. A four-way tie for second in the high jump managed to complicate things a bit.

The 880 resolved itself into a fight for first between Schwab of State and Chico runner Kostiz. Schwab, however, was edged out at the finish.

Lefcourt of State set a fast pace in the 440, but dropped back to third at the finish. Norman Crane hit the tape for number one position.

The Gater track squad has had four meets, including the pre-season Alumni feature, and not a defeat has been chalked up against State. That gives the harriers a perfect score and presages an outstanding year for the trackmen.

Participants for the OMAC included: Jack Wolf, Ernie Lousalot, Herb Platt, Cliff Nelson, Wally Young, Tom Collingwood, and George Thayer.

Red Blooded Redskins Will Invade State Campus Friday Night For Attempt At Fistic Massacre

"The only good Indian is an unconscious Indian," Coach Don Kupfer cautioned his Gater boxing squad today, as they hustled through brisk workouts in preparation for the invasion of the Hoopa Indian School next Friday night.

Definite word of the Redskins entry list, as submitted by Coach George Bogdanoff, finds the Gaters slated for ten battles ranging from the heavy division to the 125-lb. class.

The war-whoops, unable to supply a heavyweight to go against Guy Swannack, or a light heavy to supply activity for Phil Rodman, have enlisted two scrappers from Cal Poly, both alumni of the Indian school.

Led by fighters with such picturesque names as Gene Hailstone, Paul Moon and Baron Risling (how'd he get in there?), the Bucks boast a limited squad but one which to all advance notices couples the wily cunning of Sitting Bull with the ferocity of an enraged Geronimo.

A cheerful note was sounded in the Tide camp, with the announcement by Kupfer that Frankie Pope, speedy lightweight and consistent winner this season, has completely recovered from the gashed eye suffered in the Santa Clara fight, and will answer the gong against the Indian boys.

A new discovery in the person of Jack Kelly, sensation of the recent intramural battles, along with Ted Press, who improves every time out, has added a confident gleam to the Gater mentor's eye.

Leydecker, Magaran, Perry, Chin and Wendling will share the duties against the Redskins, with Wilson, ace 128-pounder, on the shelf with an injured right shoulder.

With but two more meets, both to be held on campus, the Gaters hope to balance up a thus far losing season with a pair of victories. Details of a match with the Moffat Field fighters are being ironed out, the flyers following the Indians on the Gater schedule.

Sixty Students Represent State At Convention

For the first time in 33 years, the National Music Convention was held on the Pacific Coast at Los Angeles. Representatives of Western and Middle Western colleges convened at the Philharmonic Auditorium to participate in musical performances and various panel discussions.

San Francisco State was represented by a group of 60 student teachers in a combined band, orchestra and voice group. Soloists on the program from State were: Harriet Smith, Clara King and Earl Smith.

A horn quartet, flute trio and clarinet cadenza completed the program, which was the basis of a panel discussion of typical integral music. Twenty-two educators now want the exact copy of the program for their own use.

Parts of the program were broadcast from Radio City in Hollywood in conjunction with the San Diego High School band.

Those staying for the duration of the conference were particularly impressed with the Joffe Band of Illinois. Throughout the week, educators from every part of the United States listened to such speakers as Lila Bell Pitts of the East, who has written many music texts. Speakers purposed to enlighten educators as to the ways and means of improving the teaching music in American schools and colleges.

Girls Sell Ten Cakes; Sale To Be Repeated

Plans for another cake sale to be held in the near future will be discussed at the next meeting of the Advisory Council, Wednesday noon, in the Activities room.

"We sold 10 cakes in less than an hour," stated Victoria Encoyand, publicity chairman. "Besides the plans for another sale, we will finish the discussion of the coming Freshman party."

Law Opposes Double Feature Booking System

The block-booking system with the evils of the double feature movie is now under fire in Congress.

Under the present organization, theater managers are forced to accept a low rate show along with a drawing card. The Neely Bill under consideration would do away with the foundation of this racket . . . blind booking.

According to Dr. Claude A. Shull of the English department, who wrote his doctor's thesis on the double feature, the motion picture is one of the strongest influences on the development of the modern child. Low rate picture production is finding opposition in Metro Goldwyn Mayer, United Artists, and other producer's representatives at Washington, D.C.

If sufficient public opinion can be aroused, the block-booking system will fall under the axe of Congress, and local theater managers will be able to offer only these pictures the public truly wants to see.

"Block booking makes it necessary for me either to show it or shelve it and take the loss. I can't afford to shelve it; the public can't afford to see it."
